International Quilt Study Center & Museum

I renew my Chamber Membership because:

It supports and advocates for business development that helps promote a vibrant community.

Key to success in business:

Providing an atmosphere that encourages people to use their talents and abilities for the good of the organization.

Key to success in business:

Providing an atmosphere that encourages people to use their talents and abilities for the good of the organization.

Business Profile:

International Quilt Study Center & Museum promotes discovery of quilts and quilting traditions across many cultures, countries and times through changing exhibitions, demonstrations, family days, school programs, public lectures, and quilt ID days (when visitors bring a family quilt and have an expert tell more about it). The Center & Museum is an academic program of the UNL Department of Textiles, Clothing and Design. The department offers a unique masters degree in Textile History with a quilt studies emphasis, which is the only program of its kind in the world.
